STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

In the last 90 days, agents of the Minnesota River Valley Drug Task Force began an investigation into the distribution of psilocybin mushrooms, THC cartridges, and THC flower in the Blue Earth County area.

In August of 2026, an undercover agent (UC) began speaking with Andi Tirana Selencia (dob 11/29/1998). Selencia agreed to sell the undercover agent psilocybin mushrooms. Selencia sold UC 63 grams of suspected psilocybin mushrooms in Blue Earth County. During the encounter, Selencia told the undercover agent he was heading to Oregon and Colorado to obtain more product.

Agents conducted extensive surveillance of Selencia. Law enforcement stopped multiple vehicles which were suspected customers of Selencia. Agents discovered significant amounts of THC concentrates and flower. Law enforcement observed Selencia regularly operating a Honda Civic. Agents also observed Selencia going to multiple residences, and numerous individuals coming and going from Selencia's residence in a very short time period. Agents learned that Selencia would provide individuals with loyalty cards with the name "flowerdaddy" on them.

Selencia later agreed to sell UC more psilocybin mushrooms and marijuana flower. Specifically, Selencia agreed to sell 2 pounds of psilocybin mushrooms and 1 pound of marijuana flower. Selencia was arrested before executing this sale.

Agents executed numerous search warrants in Blue Earth County, including at residences associated with Selencia, the Honda Civic they observed Selencia driving, and a residence in which Selencia was suspected of distributing controlled substances at.

A traffic stop was conducted on the Honda Civic. Selencia was driving the vehicle. He was arrested. Inside the Civic, law enforcement found approximately 1,069.5 grams of psilocybin mushrooms, 487 grams of marijuana flower, and 5 grams of THC concentrate.

At a residence associated with Selencia on Highway 22, law enforcement found 273.1 grams of suspected psilocybin mushrooms, 5,165.7 grams of marijuana flower, and 4,530.90 grams of THC concentrate/edibles. Law enforcement also found $8,550.00 in US Currency, digital scales, and a Springfield XD-S pistol. Law enforcement also found "flowerdaddy" loyalty cards.

Law enforcement also executed a search warrant at 118 Bunting Lane in Mankato. Law enforcement had information and observed surveillance consistent with that Selencia was distributing drugs to this residence. Inside, the residence, law enforcement found in the common area 32.5 grams of psilocybin mushrooms, 40 grams of THC concentrate, and 285 grams of marijuana flower. Also in the common area, law enforcement found a digital scale. The two tenants of the residence, Emmanuel Diderot Dongho Atiodjia and Mohamed Habib Diomande, were arrested inside the residence.

Officers spoke with Diomande, Atiodjia, and Selencia. Selencia wanted a lawyer. Diomande stated that he lived at the 118 Bunting Lane residence with Atiodjia. Diomande stated their shared items would be in the common area. Atiodjia admitted that Selencia drops off "products" at 118 Bunting Lane. Atiodjia says he sometimes is directed to give products to others. He then gets paid for doing this in "product."

Law enforcement observed Selencia conduct at least three separate drug transactions. Selencia told the undercover agent that he obtains products from other states. The circumstances also reveal that Selencia has a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy. The offense also reveals that Selencia was distributing and in possession of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than the minimum threshold. Specifically, the evidence supports that law enforcement seized approximately 1,438.1 grams of suspected psilocybin mushrooms, which is over 28 times the minimum threshold for first degree-controlled substance sale of a hallucinogen.

In total, law enforcement seized the following weights tied to Selencia:

5,151.62 grams of THC concentrate;
6,092.11 grams of marijuana flower; and
1,438.1 grams of psilocybin mushrooms.
