STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

On October 23, 2025, Chief Honsey from the Mapleton Police Department responded to Business 1 in the City of Mapleton, Blue Earth County, following a theft report. Chief Honsey subsequently spoke with Witness 1, Witness 2, and Witness 3.

Witnesses 1 and 2 work at Business 1. Witness 3 was a customer there at the time of the alleged theft. Witness 3 said a female suspect had a white laundry basket on a cart and was filling it up with merchandise. When Witness 3 went to pay for her items, the female suspect walked right out the door with the merchandise and got into an SUV.

Witness 2 said the female suspect stole a “hamper-full” of merchandise. Witness 2 said a male suspect with the female suspect stole a Bluetooth speaker. They arrived together and left the property together.

The value of the merchandise reported stolen by the suspects was $215.55.

On November 4, 2025, Witness 1 provided to Chief Honsey surveillance video from Business 1 showing the male and female suspects. Honsey posted screen shots from the video on Facebook and asked for the public’s help with identifying the male and female suspects. Honsey reported that an anonymous tip identified the suspects as Jordy Earl Schultz (DOB: 09/17/1982) and Manuela Francesca Otto (DOB: 07/15/1988).

On November 11, 2025, Sergeant Bottelson from the Madelia Police Department was dispatched to Business 2 in the City of Madelia, following a theft complaint. Business 1 and Business 2 are part of the same franchise. Bottelson responded and met with Witness 4 and Witness 5 who reported a male and female had been in Business 2 for almost an hour before the male paid for some items, and when he left, held the door for the female who wheeled out a cart full of items without paying for them.

When Witness 4 left Business 2 to pursue the female, the male pointed to the other side of Business 2 and said, “she went that way,” before getting in a vehicle and leaving. Witness 5 noted the vehicle had the license plate number KDD704 and described the vehicle as a black Dodge “hatchback” style vehicle. The vehicle is registered to Schultz. Witness 4 provided a list of stolen items totaling $243.80.

Witness 4 provided Bottelson with security footage of the male and female entering Business 2.

Bottelson posted a screenshot from this footage on the Madelia Police Department’s Facebook page. Several people called in response and identified the male and female as Schultz and Otto.

Chief Honsey created two photo lineups of six photos each, one including Schultz and the other including Otto. Looking at the photo lineup of females, Witness 3 identified Otto as the female suspect from Business 1.

Chief Honsey sent the photo lineup to Bottelson. Bottelson showed the photo lineups to Witness 4 and Witness 5 who separately identified Schultz and Otto as the individuals who stole items from Business 2.

On November 28, 2025, Bottelson sent Gangelhoff surveillance footage from Business 2 and related screen shots. Gangelhoff was able to identify Schultz and Otto as the male and female suspects, based on Gangelhoff’s prior contacts with each.

On December 2, 2025, Chief Honsey contacted Gangelhoff and asked Gangelhoff to review surveillance footage and screenshots relating to the October 23, 2025, theft at Business 1.

After reviewing the surveillance footage and screen shots, Gangelhoff identified the male and female suspect as Schultz and Otto, based on his prior contacts with both Schultz and Otto, including contact that same day. Gangelhoff knew Schultz and Otto to be in a significant romantic relationship.
