vs.

BRENT LEE OACHS DOB: 08/04/1987

509 Sumac Road
Madison Lake, MN 56063

Defendant.

The Complainant submits this complaint to the Court and states that there is probable cause to believe Defendant committed the following offense(s):

COUNT I

Charge: Domestic Abuse No Contact Order - Violate No Contact Order - within 10 years of previous conviction

Minnesota Statute: 629.75.2(c)

Maximum Sentence: 10 days to 364 days or $3,000 fine, or both.

Offense Level: Gross Misdemeanor

Offense Date (on or about): 10/01/2026

Control #(ICR#): 26000707

Charge Description: On or about October 1, 2026, in the County of Blue Earth, Minnesota, Brent Lee Oachs did violate a Domestic Abuse No-Contact Order and the respondent or person to be restrained knew of the existence of the order and the violation occurred within ten years of a previous qualified domestic violence-related offense conviction or adjudication of delinquency.

STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

On October 1, 2026, law enforcement was dispatched to a residence located in Blue Earth County for a DANCO violation. Officer Alexander Boone of the Madison Lake, Minnesota Police Department responded and arrived on scene. Victim had called 911 and reported that Brent Lee Oachs was intoxicated and threatening Victim.

Upon arrival dispatch indicated that Victim called 911 without Oachs being aware of the call. Officer Boone walked up to the front door of the house and knocked and made contact with Victim. While speaking with Victim she described that following:

- She had been getting tired of living with Oachs and was looking at putting a deposit down on a new home.
- She had been out to dinner earlier with her mother
- She had been texting with Oachs informing him of her looking for a new place of residence
- Oachs arrived at the house
- Oachs had been served the DANCO order by BEC Deputies on 09/17/2026.
- Oachs was in violation of the DANCO
- Victim described Oachs being upset due to her finding alternative living arrangements

Blue Earth County Sheriff's Deputies arrived on scene and set up a perimeter around the house. Victim stated that when Officer Boone arrived Oachs was in the living room, but once she came outside to speak with Officer Boone she was unsure of his whereabouts. Officer Boone approached the front door again and knocked. He audibly observed someone twisting the deadbolt to the front door from within the residence which locked the front door. Victim stated that she had access to the residence's camera feed, and that it was a live feed. Office Boone observed the feed, and it appeared that someone was seated in the driver's seat of the black car located inside the garage. It also appeared to have a faint light, possibly a phone screen.

Shortly after BEC deputies called to disengage since it appeared that Oachs had made efforts to barricade himself in the residence.

Officer Boone reviewed the 911 call recording. During the call you can hear the voice of a male in the background saying Victim's name as well as asking Victim if she was talking to the cops and if that he needs to run. It is also recorded with Victim asking the 911 dispatcher if she could overhear Brent and Victim's conversation. The dispatcher indicated that she could and further inquired if it was Brent Oachs, which Victim replied with yes.

Due to previous involvements with Oachs and speaking with him Officer Boone identified the male voice I the background of the 911 call to be Brent Oachs's voice.

There is currently an active DANCO in place which was signed by the Honorable Susan DeVos on 09/15/2026 which was served on 9/17/2026.

Oachs has a previous qualified domestic violence related offense conviction within 10 years stemming from Court File number 07-CR-26-1454.
