STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

On November 2nd, 2026, officers from the Mankato Department of Public Safety were dispatched to a report of a shoplifting incident at Business 1 within the City of Mankato. Officer Terry spoke with the complainant, Witness 1, who is an employee for Business 1. Witness 1 reported that he observed a woman, later identified as Jasmine Kay Ann Johnson Patrick (DOB: 10/13/2000), taking food items from the roller grill and placing them in her backpack.

Witness 1 told Officer Terry that Johnson Patrick was also eating the food as she was selecting it and before she was paying for it. Witness 1 told Johnson Patrick to pay for the items. Johnson Patrick refused to pay for the items in her backpack and left the store, so Witness 1 called 911. Johnson Patrick walked past all points of sale without paying for the items in her backpack.

Officer Terry caught up with Johnson Patrick at a nearby business, Business 2. Officer Terry told Johnson Patrick that she was not free to leave and that she needed to come with him back to Business 1. While being escorted back to Business 1, Johnson Patrick was yelling and screaming at Officer Terry while attempting to walk away from him.

Officer Pike and Officer Anderson also arrived on scene to assist. While Officer Terry was attempting to speak with Witness 1, Johnson Patrick repeatedly attempted to walk away and walk past officers. Johnson Patrick also attempted to grab at the bags that Officer Terry had on the counter. After being told to stop, Johnson Patrick again attempted to grab the bags on the counter and walk away from officers; Officer Pike grabbed hold of Johnson Patrick's right arm.

Johnson Patrick then tensed her muscles and pulled her arms to the front of her body. Officer Pike informed Johnson Patrick that she was under arrest and Johnson Patrick said that she was not under arrest. Johnson Patrick was told to put her arms behind her back and she continued to tense her muscles and refused to put her arms behind her back.

Officers conducted a two-officer takedown technique in order to place Johnson Patrick under arrest. After being placed in a prone position laying on the floor Johnson Patrick continued to tense her muscles and held her arms underneath her body. Johnson Patrick also tensed her legs and tried to stand back up by moving her knees forward. It took multiple officers efforts to gain control of Johnson Patrick and stop her from pulling away, hide her arms under her body, and tensing her muscles to resist arrest.

Officer Terry conducted a search of Johnson Patrick's backpack for the food that Witness 1 observed her take without paying. Officer Terry found various food items in the backpack that had not been paid for with a total value of less than $500.
