STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

On July 21, 2026, Officer Nicholas Herwig was on routine patrol in the City of Mankato within Blue Earth County. While on patrol Officer Herwig located a Chevrolet Trailblazer driving Westbound on Hwy 14 and exited on Northbound Hwy 22. Officer Herwig observed the vehicle to have tint too dark on the driver and passenger windows, and a cracked windshield. Officer Herwig recognized the vehicle with license plate ZER909 as a vehicle known to be driven by Gregg Allen Pagel (DOB 8/14/1971). The driver appeared to be a bald white male, matching Pagel's description. Officer Herwig knew that Pagel had multiple active warrants for his arrest, and that he had a driving status of cancelled -inimical to public safety. Officer Herwig then activated his emergency lights and pulled the vehicle over.

Officer Herwig approached the vehicle and observed a female who would later be identified as Maryann Lee Hanson (DOB 7/23/1983) sitting in the front passenger seat making abnormal movements. He then made contact with the driver and identified himself as Gregg Allen Pagel. Pagel was asked to shut off his vehicle, and he was then arrested for his active warrants. Pagel was initially non-cooperative. He was eventually handcuffed. Officer Herwig then walked Pagel to the front of the squad car and searched for his person incident to arrest. In his right bottom shorts pocket Officer Herwig found a small metal tube that contained a usable amount of a white crystal substance which later tested positive for methamphetamine weigh 5.77 grams.

Commander McGinnis also arrived on scene and was able to identify the female passenger as Maryann Lee Hanson (DOB 7/23/1983) While speaking with Hanson. Commandeer McGinnis observed Hanson to be nervous throughout the encounter and continuously would rub and scratch her face. She indicated that there was something in the vehicle that she did not want law enforcement to find. At one point Hanson became visibly emotional and began crying. Officer Colton Pike and Officer Herwig searched the vehicle and found the following items:

- 18 hydromorphone pills (Schedule II controlled substance) found in Maryann Hanson's purse
- A pill pack containing 30 hydromorphone pills prescribed to another individual. Found in rear passenger seat
- A pack containing 30 hyoscyamine pills prescribed to another individual. Found in rear passenger seat.

Pagel read the Miranda advisory and chose to speak with law enforcement.

He had used methamphetamine last week.

- He admitted that the methamphetamine in the vehicle was his.
- He knew there were two narcotic bubble pipes in the vehicle.
- He knew his driving status was Canceled-IPS
- He stated that the hydromorphone were not stolen and belong to "grandpa"

Pagel was ultimately transported to the Blue Earth County Jail. Hanson was allowed to drive the vehicle home, but law enforcement indicated to her that charges were most likely forthcoming.
