STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

On July 21, 2026, the Madison Lake Police Department was dispatched to an address within Blue Earth County, Minnesota for a possible Domestic Situation. Chief Wills and Deputy Martin of the Blue Earth County Sheriff's Department responded to the scene.

Chief Wills responded to the scene and initially observed a male and Victim walking. The male was walking ahead of the Victim and yelling back at her saying he wanted to talk. Chief Wills told both parties to stop, the Victim male continued walking and yelling. The Victim stopped along the road. Deputy Martin then arrived on scene and approached the Victim Chief Wills continued to attempt to get the male party to stop walking and sit down. He was not complying. The male was carrying a backpack, and he tossed a set of vehicle keys to Chief Wills. The male eventually sat down and provided his driver's license to law enforcement. The male party was identified as Aaron Lee Morgan 09/17/1994. The Victim was identified by Deputy Martin while speaking with Chief Wills, Morgan stated the following:

- Victim is his girlfriend and they live together with her ex-boyfriend
- They got into an argument after she had gotten off work
- Victim picked him up after she was done with work
- They then parked the car, and she indicated that she was done and wanted him out of the car
- They got out of the car and started yelling at each other
- Morgan took her car keys at some point
- Morgan was worried about going to Prison
- Morgan and Victim cannot talk at their place because her ex-boyfriend will beat him up

Morgan was then placed into the back of a squad car for safety reasons. Morgan asked if the window could be rolled down, Chief Wills did. When the window was rolled down Morgan continued yelling to the Victim that he was sorry and loved her.

While speaking with Deputy Martin, Victim informed him of the following:

- They argued and he took her car keys and did not give them back
- Morgan grabbed her by her right arm forcefully
- She threatened to call 911
- Morgan threatened that if she called 911 he would throw her keys in the lake
- Morgan was hitting himself in the head
- She was scared of him

Morgan was then placed under arrest. During the arrest law enforcement attempted to obtain a PBT form Morgan but he refused but did state that he only had 2 beers at Rounders Bar that night.
