STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

In the evening on November 23, 2026, Officer Wright from the Mankato Department of Public Safety observed a male driver slumped over in the driver's seat of a vehicle running but parked with its lights on. Officer Wright knocked on the driver's side window and was able to get the male's attention. Wright reported it then took the male approximately 17 seconds to open the car door, and it appeared to Wright the male did not comprehend what was going on. The male was later identified as Jordan Anthony Allen-Wilson (DOB: 10/20/1994).

Allen-Wilson denied that he'd been sleeping and when Wright advised he had knocked on Allen-Wilson's window to wake him up, Allen-Wilson asked, "you banged on my window?" Allen-Wilson said he had been on his phone. Wright asked Allen-Wilson how long he had been parked at that location. Allen-Wilson looked around and said, "ah shit, I really don't know. I must've really been out of it." Allen-Wilson denied consuming alcohol, said he smokes all the time and smoked earlier today but that he was not impaired.

Officer Wright asked Allen-Wilson to do standardized field sobriety testing ("SFST"), and Allen-Wilson said he was trying to go home. Allen-Wilson said he did not have a driver's license with him. When Officer Wright asked Allen-Wilson if he had a valid driver's license, Allen-Wilson said he was not driving. Allen-Wilson did not remember telling Officer Wright he was trying to get home.

Officer Wright noted Allen-Wilson's eyes were extremely watery and bloodshot. Allen-Wilson's movements were slow and deliberate.

When Officer Wright asked Allen-Wilson again to do SFST, Allen-Wilson said he did not have to because he had not been driving or consuming alcoholic beverages. Wright advised Allen-Wilson that Wright would take control of Allen-Wilson to get him out of the vehicle if Allen-Wilson did not voluntarily exit his vehicle.

Allen-Wilson then got out of the vehicle and pressed the front of his hips against his vehicle. Wright recognized this as an evasive movement and attempt to conceal something. Wright asked Allen-Wilson multiple times if Allen-Wilson had anything on his person, and Allen-Wilson did not respond. Wright then searched Allen-Wilson's belt line, moving from the left pocket to the center, where he felt something consistent with the handle of a pistol.

Wright removed the item from Allen-Wilson's belt line. Wright and Sergeant Gagnon identified it as a handgun.

Officer Strong called the registered owner of the vehicle, Witness 1, who said he lent the vehicle to Allen-Wilson, who told Witness 1 he needed to pick up his daughter from the hospital.

Allen-Wilson was convicted in the State of Indiana of committing Robbery Resulting in Serious Bodily Injury, a crime of violence as defined in Minn. Stat. § 624.712, subd. 5.

The firearm Allen-Wilson possessed was marked as stolen from Owatonna, Minnesota.

Wright transported Allen-Wilson where Wright applied for a warrant to search Allen-Wilson's blood or urine. The application by approved by a District Court judge in the Fifth Judicial District. Allen-Wilson provided a urine sample, which will be tested by the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension.
