STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

On September 27, 2025, officers from the Mankato Department of Public Safety received a report of a sexual assault that occurred between 2:30 a.m. and 4:00 a.m.

Victim 1, an adult female, went to the local emergency room for a SART examination and treatment. She arrived at the E.R. with complaints of bleeding and severe abdominal pain.

Officer Ellis met with Victim 1 at the E.R. and again on September 29, 2025, at the Public Safety Center. Victim 1 reported that she was out with a group of people that included an individual later identified as Joshua Stanley Olivares (DOB 10/25/2002). The group visited various bars and restaurants in Downtown Mankato. Next, the group went to a house of one of her friends in Mankato.

When Victim 1 wanted to leave the friend's house and go home, Olivares apparently obtained an Uber to take Victim 1 back to her apartment. When they arrived at Victim 1's apartment, she told Olivares "goodbye" and "thank you." Yet Olivares came into the apartment. Victim 1 had difficulty opening the door to her room within her apartment. Her roommate assisted her in opening the door. Once the door to her room was opened, Victim 1 entered the room. Olivares entered behind her and shut the door.

Victim one reported that Olivares forcibly removed her pants. He then attempted to penetrate her vagina with his finger(s). Victim 1 did not want Olivares to penetrate her with his fingers. Olivares then attempted to perform oral sex on Victim 1. He put his head between her legs. Victim 1 pushed his head away, said "no" and that she did not want to do anything.

Olivares moved Victim 1 to where she was laying on her stomach. She could not move. Olivares began penetrating Victim 1 from behind with his penis while Victim 1 was on her stomach and unable to move. She said "no." Victim 1 reported she was "freaking out," struggling, crying, and telling him that she did not want to do it. Olivares asked her if she liked it. During the struggle, Victim 1 reported that she knocked items off her nightstand. She stated that she was in pain during the encounter. Victim 1 never gave consent for any of the sexual activity.

On October 14, 2025, Detective Michael Sack obtained a Search Warrant to obtain a known DNA sample from Joshua Stanley Olivares (DOB 10/25/2002). DNA analysis of Victim 1's genitalia and inner thighs concluded that neither Joshua Olivares nor any of his paternally related male relatives can be excluded. Further DNA testing is anticipated.

Detective Sack interviewed the Defendant. He stated the encounter was consensual.

The examination at the E.R., disclosed a fissure in Victim 1's external genitalia and a small superficial tear in the vaginal wall.
