STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

On or about, July 31, 2026, Victim reported to Blue Earth County dispatch that she had sold an RV in Good Thunder, Minnesota within the county of Blue Earth and two individuals had issued fraudulent checks for the sale.

Deputy Andrew Hagen of the Blue Earth County Sheriff's Department called and contacted Victim. Victim reported that Ray Maxon and Catharine Maxon had agreed to purchase the RV and had given her a $200 check to hold the RV, which cleared. They then provided her with two additional checks the one for $1000.00 and another for $1300.00 that did not clear.

Ray and Catherine Maxson picked up the RV on July 17, 2026, and asked Victim to hold the checks until Monday which is when they were paid. Victim stated that both Ray and Catherine provided her with a check. Victim provided photographs of the checks to Deputy Hagen, which indicated that the checks were in both Ray and Catherine's name.

Victim deposited the checks in her account on July 20, 2026. On July 27, 2026, Victim learned that there were insufficient funds within the account. Victims called Ray and Catherine on July 27, 2026, twice. Both times there was no answer. Later in the evening Victim received a text that she believed to be sarcastic from Ray and Catherine, "We are really enjoying the camper have a goodnight. Victim then called a minute later and there was no answer. Victim then texted back stating "You need to pay me my money, or I will take the cops with me, and we will figure something out." Victim stated that Ray and Catherine have Victim's number blocked.

Officer Hagen ran the VIN of the RV in CIS and observed that the RV was already registered to Catherine Maxson. On August 3, 2026, Victim advised that she had sent a notice and demand to Catherine and Ray along with appropriate statutes via certified mail. On August 31, 2026, Victim stated that she received the notice and demand letter back from the post office as undeliverable.

On September 11, 2026, Victim received text messages from Ray and Catherine stating they were sorry for what happened.
